EAST SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL
ROCKFORD, ILLINOIS
VOLUME SIXTEEN

School life at East high school can well be represented by modern art. Both are indefinable, to be interpreted by each individual.

To some, school life consists of classes and teachers, combined with the many social functions East high puts into production. To some, being with friends between classes or staying after school for one of the many extra-curricular activities comprises life, and to many, sports, both participating and spectating, is the highlight of high school days.

Just as when looking at this book or at a modern picture everyone sees something different, so in future years this way of life and this picture will again have a different value for those who view it. Perhaps it will seem just the fun in life, or a foundation for future achievements in an occupation, but all will recognize it as an open door to the future.

Student Life . . .

Both exciting activities and everyday events have made lasting impressions on us during our years at East. Anything from a group of spirited Eastites cheering our teams to victory to concentrating deeply on a history final is included in our cherished memories of student life.

Faculty . . .

Even though our classes may have seemed hard work at the time, we'll never forget the understanding, concerned faculty members who molded our lives and prepared us for good citizenship. Our increased knowledge in all subjects will benefit our future through the leadership of the faculty.

Students . . .

It's more than the name and face of every Eastite, as formally listed on these pages, that make up the hard-working and fun-loving student body. It's, rather, memories of each person as we recall them studying, double dating, or talking together about a mutual teen-age problem.

Clubs . . .

Each student, through associating with any of East's organizations, builds his interests, training himself to run the wheels of industry, business, and government. Whether it be to develop talents, delve into unknown subjects, or dream of new ideas, clubs play an important role in the school curricula.

Sports . . .

Bolstered by five energetic cheerleaders and crowds of yelling fans, we will remember how we always supported our teams in victory and defeat. Throughout all seasons of sports, our athletes promoted good sportsmanship and upheld the high reputations of East while meeting rival schools.

Amid torrents of rain on the night of October 28, a procession of fourteen beautifully decorated floats, sponsored by school clubs, was seen during the half time of the varsity football game against LaSalle Peru

The gym decorated with yellow mums and brown maple leaves was the setting of the homecoming dance entitled "Autumn Leaves." The crowning of the queen at the dance and dancing to the tune of Bill Engberg's orchestra climaxed East's fourth annual Homecoming

4. The homecoming spirit was to be kept alive by the ideas used by East high club during the half time parade. A homecoming dance, was highlighted by the crowning of the queen and the presentation of the East high Rab. and the other festive steps.

Music From 'Student Prince' Delights Audience

Before a packed house on November 18 and 19, the East high school stage was transformed into all the splendor and enchantment of a land far across the sea. With the aid of Uden Landstrom and Aelene Huggberg the East high choral department staged "The Student Prince," a musical comedy by Sigvard Romberg. Choral groups portrayed village folk, college students and the royal court of a tiny kingdom ruled by a monarch dear to all their hearts.

"The Student Prince" is the story of a handsome young prince who falls in love with a beautiful barmaid that works at an inn in Heidelberg where the prince is lodging while he attends the university there. Torn between his love for this girl and his duty to his country the prince encounters much grief while making up his mind as to which he will choose. Finally he decides in favor of his country, returns to the palace, and marries the girl chosen for him.

Nominated by the Dolphin club members and elected by the student body to reign over the 1956 Dolphin Show were Sondra Sponberg, Queen, and her two attendants, Janet Kruse and Joan Heid.

Queen Reigns Over Dolphin Show Festivities

"I present Her Majesty, Miss Sondra Sponberg, Queen of the 1956 Dolphin Show, and her two attendants, Miss Janet Kruse and Miss Joan Heid." With these words master of ceremonies, Jim Miller opened the 16th annual Dolphin Show entitled "Round the World."

A variety of acts, which took the audiences on trips to different parts of the world, ranged from water ballets to clown diving.

Comedy ballets were Sheetz, Noling, Krivan, and Anderson. Clown diver, Hedlin.

Swimmers Arouse "Imagination"

Imagine a hot summer day and a watermelon feast, a journey through outer space, girls pretending to be ballerinas, and a Miss America contest. All of these things were portrayed in the Dorado Show, "Imagination," which was presented on Wednesday, November 9.

Fifty girls took part in the show in combinations of water ballets and land acts. Five boys from the Dolphin club also participated in the show. Miss Lovett guided the cast through many hours of planning and practice in order to make the show a success. The script was written by Jan Waishnor and Bett Sommer. Bett also served as mistress of ceremonies.

Sue Ochler's solo took us on a journey through outer space in her water ballet "Meditation."

"Kind Lady" Staged By Seniors

The tense psychological drama, "The Kind Lady" by Edward Cheever, was presented by the senior class on April 6 and 7 under the direction of Adeline Heebberg.

The plot shows how a dignified elderly woman is gradually overcome by a family of clever crooks. By means of ingenious plotting, they alienate her family and friends from her and practically convince the outside world and the kind lady herself that she is insane.

Suspense and mystery surround her life and home. It is thought that the kind lady will lose her sanity and property, but through courage she manages to get word to the outside world and is saved.

Juniors Present "Seventeenth Summer"

Many delightful experiences dear to any teenager touched the hearts of the audiences present at the performances of "Seventeenth Summer," a comedy given by the junior class on February 16 and 18.

The play centers around the summer of a 17-year-old girl and her family who share with her events that make those months something to remember forever. Her first formal, her first boy friend, their first fight and all the sadness that goes with it. The day comes quickly when she must leave her family and friends for college but not without the assurance that the boy will be waiting for her.

Our Faculty Keeps EHS Clicking In . . .

Phrases such as "Friends, Romans, Countrymen," linger in our minds and bring with them reminders of the teachers who guided us through our struggle toward graduation.

Mutual admiration has been shown by offering to help teachers with various tasks and by the advice on homework and personal problems. Students have found guidance pertaining to college and vocational careers through literature provided by class advisors and suggestions by classroom teachers.

The Board of Education also has played a tremendous part in our schooling. This group of people, who have devoted so much of their time and effort to our schools, indeed deserve the thanks and gratitude of the student body.

They have helped plan and develop our school in a manner that is very beneficial to East.

Guidance . . .

Sophomores are started on their high school journey under the leadership of Miss Catherine Needham. Miss Ruth Ann White instructs the junior class as to courses and credits required of graduation and college entrance. Presenting information for future years following graduation, Mr. Russell Erb gives seniors details on college life and business careers.

From the vast amount of varied courses, one can choose classes suited to his individual interests and requirements. The science department offers students opportunities to discover possible interests in this field. The math, language, music, and social studies departments are just a few of the many departments that also aid the student in preparing for later years.

Sheepskin and Ribbon Open Unknown Doorway to Future

Senior class vice-president Mike Copp, treasurer Sondra Sponberg, secretary Joan Bloomquist, and president Jim Waskiewicz planned the final activities for the class of '56

The senior in high school symbolizes an open door to the future, and also the closing door of a never-to-be-repeated phase in our lives

It is memories of opening East's door in September; the fighting school pride in the heat of an East-West game, senior themes and tough teachers; thundering applause as the final curtain closed our class play; E Rab hats, and songs yelled at lunch; horseplay and deadline rushing in Publications; election of Student Council and class officers; watching rain splatter against the windows of 129; the crazy skit at our mixer "Hillbilly Hayday"; forming new friendships, desolving the old; corsages, and memories floating on Senior Prom music; and finally A-Cappella closing school life with "Halls of Ivy."

As the door closes, the senior has graduated from past joys and disappointments; but no door can ever shut out memories of the class of '56

Ambitious, Hard-working Seniors Are Given Recognition

At 9:15 one morning in early February, telephones in various senior classes throughout East rang vibrantly. "Please send the following students to the office at the end of the hour" were words repeated time after time. Within ten minutes, twenty of East's exceptional seniors were standing before Mr. Welsh being informed that they had been selected for the honor of "Top Ten."

These few students are selected in the order of their standing in the class which is based on their grade point average. All the grades from the end of the ninth grade until the end of the senior year's first semester are taken into consideration. Receiving this honor are the top ten boys and the top ten girls of the graduating class.

Presenting the winners of the 1964-65

Successful Juniors Assume New Roles As Upperclassmen

As juniors we have experienced many varying emotions this past year -st blorn determination at standing in lines for lunches admits tickets standing in line, period, feeling of pride for the class Homecoming float, even if it sagged around the edges, shocking terror upon the first peek at the Juniors aptitude tests, and panic that only a newswriting class can endure after seeing their exams. Disappointments we remember at losing games, not having that special date, and an I on a hard worked on paper, all surge upward in the sparkling magic of our prom, Frosted Fantasy - and the future stars appearing for curtain calls closing Seventeenth Summer.

Everyone has memories of this junior year, both good and bad. But whatever they may be, next year can be looked forward to as the wonderful rush for our class of '57. Next year we'll be SENIORS!

Teaching the Rules in their activities were the sophomores Steve Sheets, vice president, Sue Phillips, secretary, and Karen Wisner, treasurer.

Searching in desperation for their classrooms are bewildered sophs Howard Heid, Celeste Anderson, David Malm and Bonnie Anderson.

Sophs Begin Life

From the teething ring stage of nursery school we ventured into seven carefree years of grammar school, accompanied by skinned knees, ink-stained pig-tails, and spats with playmates. Our next step was junior high where we remained for three happy-go-lucky years. After what seemed an eternity, we suddenly became a part of that long-awaited Raoland.

Our first project of the year was electing class officers, Bruce Swenson, president; Steve Sheets, vice president; Sue Phillips, secretary; and Karen Wisner, treasurer.

To become a greater part of school functions, we selected capable students to represent us on Student Council and cheerleaders to lead Rablets to victory.

Our major social event during our year was the sophomore party. All committee members helped to make March 23 a memorable evening.

After all the experiences we encountered on the hilltop, we anxiously await our future as juniors and graduating seniors of the class of 1958.

Miss Needham, our class advisor, was always on hand to help solve our problems.

Proper Ingredients Result In Superior Student Council

Take five girls and five boys from each class, add to them five officers who make up the executive committee, advisor, Mr. Arnold Chandler, and you have East high's Student Council. The Council serves as a governing body for the welfare of East high students, and takes on many varied and difficult tasks.

Heading the list of council projects is the annual Homecoming. Plans for this event are made and carried out by the council members.

Student Council committee chairman reading suggestions from the suggestion box in junior study hall are, seated: Jim Miller, Ann Holloway and Dick Nelson, and, standing: Karen Anderson, Louise Tang, Mary Ellen Kowalski, I. Gustafson, Bob Sabin, and advisor, Mr. Chandler.

Also, the council takes care of all after-game parties and pep rallies. Selling tickets, providing music, supervising in the ping-pong room, and operating the ever popular "coke bar" are all duties of its members.

Other projects of the Student Council are: the suggestion boxes in the study halls where students can voice their opinions on school problems and needs, the annual Christmas time "Tots for Tots" drive, school elections, music in the cafeteria, and the upkeep of the Memorial Garden. This year the council also helped provide funds for an Illinois State flag in the auditorium.

Marcia Bennett, member of the publicity committee, closes case reserved for Student Council posters after entering that week's poster.

Largest Turnout In Rab's History For Debate Club

Junior varsity debaters are Randy Johnson, Bill Cleveland, and Mary Gessman.

Reporting in room 206 last September was the largest debate turnout in the history of East high. The squad consisted of three seniors, five juniors, and twenty-three sophomores.

First trip of the year was made to the clinic at Northwestern University. At Evanston, the varsity won four and lost two, and two weeks later placed second at Geneseo with seven wins and one loss.

Big tournaments of the year were Navy Pier, Augustana, and the Conference at Aurora. The team was hoping to make its sixth straight appearance in the state tournament when the yearbook went to press.

Under the leadership of Miss Elizabeth McGuire, Radio-TV club resumed its meeting on the second Tuesday of every month with programs featuring speakers from local stations and short radio skits.

Radio and TV enthusiasts found out about work in the field and gained practical experience in the jobs allied to broadcasting.

The club visited the television stations in February and handled most of the TV advertising for school functions.

Destination: Chicago; place: Conrad Hilton Hotel; time: February 26, 1956; purpose: to sing for the National Association of Secondary School Principals. This was one of the many honors bestowed upon the fifty-eight members of the East high A Cappella during the past year.

Their formal season commenced with the comic operetta, "Student Prince," presented November 18 and 19, and was followed by a guest appearance at the Rockford Civic Symphony's Concert. After much practice and early morning rehearsals, A Cappella helped to present "The Commemoration of Christmas," a sacred Christmas assembly, depicting the birth of Christ.

At the A Cappella concert, May 6, 1956, the choir rendered a ringing tribute to Mr. Linden Lundstrom's matchless direction and leadership.

Schottisches and Polkas Among Those Presented By East Folk Dancers

In the past years the East high Folk Dancers have been known primarily for Scandinavian dances, but many other nationalities are also represented, including Czechoslovakian, Russian, and Swiss.

During the past year the folk dancers, under the direction of Mr. Linden Lundstrom, have presented programs for PTA groups and other various Rockford organizations. They also presented a fall assembly featuring Swedish and Swiss dances.

Highlighting the year was a reunion of folk dancers from the past five years which was held in December at the Jewish Community Center.

One of the most active organizations at East high is the school band. Under the direction of Mr. Gordon Bueschel with Mr. Russell Anderson serving as assistant director, the East band played for many school activities.

At each football and basketball game the band was present to lead Eastites in the school song and to highlight each half-time with a variety of selections.

The band participated in the Veterans' Day assembly, played at Commencement, and several groups of ensembles also took part in the Christmas assemblies.

With Jim Waskiewicz leading the band as drum major, members were a part of the Veterans' Day parade. Following participation in the Memorial Day parade, the band took part in the program at the library.

After many hours of preparation, the year's successful schedule was climaxed by their annual concert given in April.

Members Show Musical Skills

Orchestra officers making plans for their annual spring concert are (standing) David Beck, James Thompson, Nathan Smith, and James Dick, (seated) Kevin Howard, Gary Alexander, and William White.

On days when the door to the orchestra room was allowed to remain open, seventh hour classes on the third floor were serenaded by the music of East high's orchestra.

Helping to make this another successful year for the orchestra was their director Mr. June Bornor who has been orchestra director for the senior high schools of Rockford since 1918.

During rehearsal, orchestra members like to make use of the tape-recorder for fun but they also enjoy good hard practices in preparation for the many events at which they play. This year some of those events have included Baccalaurette, the Christmas assembly, the operetta "Student Prince" and intermission music at the junior and senior class plays.

Their annual spring concert, which is always combined with the West high orchestra, was presented this year at West high.

Social activities included the annual tea in the fall, which helped to get old and new members acquainted, and a dinner-dance in the spring held with West high's orchestra in the cafeteria here.

Friendship and Aid To Needy Keep JRC'ers Busy

Twice a month during the past year, a busy group of East high students, led by Miss Helen Peterson, members of our school's chapter of the American Junior Red Cross, could be found working on many projects such as preparing food to be sent to veterans hospitals and selling seals and bangles for the Tuberculosis Association.

Striving to promote better understanding and friendship among all nationalities and aiding needy and unfortunate people are the main objectives of the club. These worthwhile causes were carried out as they campaigned for the money needed through their annual enrollment drive held during the beginning of the school year.

The Cercle Français, or French Club, is open to all French speaking students. While at meetings in 212 on the second Tuesday of each month and while in class the members are allowed to speak only French.

Guided by Miss Sylvia Brewer, this year's officers, Paula Mintz, president; Marcia Hoffman, vice-president; Gail Horst, secretary; and Judy Diamond, treasurer, led the club to a greater appreciation of the French people, their customs, and language.

IRC Sponsors Trip To Nation's Capital

Main project of International Relations club this year was the sponsoring of a trip to Washington, D. C. Speakers, discussions, and movies were all part of the meetings, while a mock debate with Debate club and a Christmas party made up the social program.

Mr. Charles Green is the club's advisor. Dave Muzzy served as president, Paula Mintz as vice-president, Jane Ohlund as secretary, and Jan Waishnor as treasurer.

Familiar Faces Of PSPO'ers Present At All Occasions With Flashbulbs and Cameras

Under the leadership of Mr. Leonard Matz, their new advisor, Publications Staff Photographers' Organization worked hard to make and take pictures for the "Highlights" and "Argus," besides selling sophomore homeroom pictures, prom pictures, and various student orders.

There was a constant rush to keep up with the publication's deadlines and to finish the student orders, but, in spite of this rush, the members found time to have an ice skating party, a project in photographing "still life," and a picnic in the spring.

PSPO club promoted interest in photography by means of a contest held during the second semester for all East high students.

Busy Staff Members Enjoy Hectic Hours In Publications

So this is it! This is the room occupied by the Highlights staff. The staff is buzzing around getting the paper ready to be sent to press. The whole thing seems to operate as a hospital staff would, only their instruments are paper, paste, scissors, typewriters, etc.

Each week they put out a paper and this takes work stories to get and type, people to see, deadlines to make, consultations with the printer, dummies to set up, and lastly folding it and getting it off to the homerooms on Friday. Such is the job of our Highlights staff and their advisor, the very busy "Mrs. S."

Picture proportioning, ad acquiring, confidential conferences, copy cutting, cover choosing, and wasteful worrying — all these and more contributed to the making of this year's annual.

Beginning in the early summer, the Argus staff was hard at work planning the theme of the yearbook. In an effort to learn more about printing, several members of the staff traveled to Davenport, Iowa, where the yearbook is printed.

Several meetings at school were held for the editors to discuss various perplexing problems. From these meetings came many original ideas for the publications campaign in the fall. One idea stemming from these meetings was the innovation of the combined talent show and motion picture.

As a final tribute, the Highlight and Argus staffs were feted at a Publications' Banquet in the spring, where the new staffs were announced.

Tomorrow's Technologists Prepare By Viewing Industry In Action

Junior Engineers club was formed for the purpose of informing boys who planned to go into engineering of the duties, the type and amount of preparation needed, and advancement opportunities present in engineering today. Mr. Walter Boguski helps the boys toward that goal.

This year, as in previous years, field trips were taken to various Rockford industries, such as the Barber Colman plant, to illustrate these points through actual contact with experienced men.

Qualifications for membership in the club are an advanced mathematics or science course and at least one year of work in the industrial arts department.

Y-Teens Grow In Character, Knowledge, Love

Charity, cheer, and color highlighted the Y-Teen program for this year.

By showing a helpful and humble disposition, the fifty members of Y-Teens gathered together a supply of food and distributed it among some needy families of Rockford during the Thanksgiving season.

A first on the Y-Teen agenda this year was the making of a colorful float displayed through the drizzling rain in the Homecoming procession of floats.

Being interested in growing as a person, growing in friendship with people of all races, religions, and nationalities, and growing in the knowledge of love of God, Y-Teens, under the helpful supervision of Sue Roederer, has shown another successful year.

It is comforting to know someone is ready to help you solve the intricacies of the Dewey Decimal system, find the magazine you want, or suggest a good book for book reports. Besides checking books, magazines, and newspapers, and shelving them, staff members and advisor, Mrs. Jennie Lunn, relax at occasional parties and field trips.

The Reserve Officers Training Corps, better known as the ROTC, is composed of two companies, two platoons per company, and four squads per platoon. Using these units as a functioning basis, the cadets are taught the fundamentals of being a soldier. Rifle manual, parading, and drill are but a few of the many courses in the three years of the building of a cadet. The social life of the cadet includes the military ball, held each year to raise funds for various RO functions and equipment. Topping the activities of the RO men is the rigid federal inspection held every spring. The life of a soldier is not an easy one, but with three years of ROTC behind him, a boy finds it a little easier to accept the responsibilities of the service.

Soph's 6-3 Record Marks Best Season In Rablet History

DEFENSE MAN R. C. JENSEN TAKEN IN ACTION. West Aurora ball carrier with the help of another Rablet defensive man.

The Rablets, under Coach Cliff Brees, finished the year with the finest season record ever compiled by a sophomore team at East. They posted a 6-3 won-lost mark and ended in a three way tie for second place in the Little Big Eight Conference.

The Rablets scored shut-out victories in their first two games by beating Beloit 12-0 and Belvidere 21-0. They dropped their third game of the fall campaign to East Aurora by a 6-0 margin, but came back strong the following Friday night to defeat Elgin 20-7.

The next week-end the Rablets defeated the Freeport sophs by a 6-0 score. The following Friday night they out played their crosstown foes West Rockford and defeated them 18-6.

The Breesmen lost their next two outings to LaSalle-Peru and Joliet teams. LaSalle-Peru downed them 12-7 and Joliet shut them out 12-0. In the seasons final game the Rablets defeated the Little Big Eight champs West Aurora 20-13.

Bruce Cacciapaglia and Doug Henderson were chosen as co-captains of the team.

Best wishes to the Rabs' new varsity basketball coach, Art Sadtler

The 1955-56 basketball season is now in the Rab record books. Coach Art Sadtler in his first season as head basketball coach, guided the E-Rabs to a record of 15 victories and 8 defeats

The record books will say that according to the won-loss column this year's bucketball squad was not the greatest in the history of the Hilltop. The thing that the record books won't be able to say is that no other team in East high history has possessed more heart and fight or given their followers more sheer thrills and excitement than the team of 1955-56

There were eight starters who ended their prep cage careers this year. These were seniors Joe Choppi, Mike Copp, Ron Englund, Gary Graeff, Frank Guasto, Gary Lindsay, Joel Peterson and Fred Clow

Fighting for the "Elite Eight" positions in the state finals at Champaign began in early March. In the Regional tournament, at West high, the Rabs started off in fine fashion by downing Harvard 91-57 and St. Thomas 79-60. Then the E-Rabs came up against the West Rockford Warriors and were defeated by a 98-71 score. The Warriors, showing the form of true champions, went on to win their second state championship in a row

The Rabs opened their season with four impressive victories in a row. On November 26, they played host to and defeated Beloit 74-57. In their second game of the year, the inspired Rabs turned back a strong Moline team by a 76-65 score. The Moline five was the only team in the state to defeat the West Rockford Warriors this season

In their first out-of-town game of the year the Rabs downed a stubborn Janesville five 57-51. Seven days later, and back on their home court, East trounced Waukesha 88-65

The next week-end the Sadtlermen trekked to East Aurora to open their bid for a Big-Eight Conference title

The relaxed Rabs, trying for their fifth straight win of the season, were edged out by Aurora 77-72. The Rabs quickly snapped back to their winning ways, however, and downed a fine Sterling quintet 81-75

At this point in the season the Rabs were ranked as the number 12 team in the state. They played host to Big-Eight foe Freeport and dropped a hard fought 59-58 heartbreaker

After the Freeport loss the Rabs swung into their Christmas tournament. East won both of their doubleheader games. The first night, playing at the West Rockford gym, they downed Peoria Central team 67-66. The second night's play switched to the East high court and the Rabs rolled over Peoria Manual 73-54.

After the Holiday Tournament the Rabbs traveled to Elgin. Host Elgin defeated East by an 84-72 margin. The following night, back on their home floor, East defeated the Belvidere Bucs 67-64. The next week-end the Rabbs won their first Big-Eight contest of the season by outscoring LaSalle-Peru at LaSalle-Peru. The final score was 84-61 in favor of the Rabbs.

In their next encounter the hard fighting Rabbs fell to West Rockford by an 80-61 score. East came back the next week-end however and won two games. They played host to conference foe Joliet on Friday night and downed the Steelmen 87-73. On Saturday they journeyed to Barrington and defeated their non-conference foe by an 82-68 margin.

In their next outing the Rabbs lost to Freeport 75-65, at Freeport. They came back, however, and won their next two games by defeating West Aurora 87-55 and by downing Belvidere in a real barn-burner 66-65

The Rabbs lost their last two games of the regular season to LaSalle-Peru by a 69-68 margin and to West Rockford in an all out effort 73-61

Receiving major basketball letters from Coach Art Sadtler were seniors Joe Choppi, Mike Copp, Ron Englund, Gary Graeff, Frank Guasto, Gary Lindsay, Joel Peterson and Fred Clow along with juniors Ron Adamson, Joe Lasky and Tom Lewis. Fred Clow was elected captain of the squad by his teammates

Chuck Blade and Gary Gitchell received major manager letters for their services and Steve Polaski received a minor award for his duties as a manager

The J.V.'s, coached by Cliff Brees, ended their season with a 4-6 record. Promising juniors to be back from this squad next season are Dick Nelson, Jim Powers and Roger Martin

Rablets Post 14-7 Season; End Up Second in Big Eight

The sophomore bucketmen, under the guiding hand of Coach Harry Palmer, finished their season with a promising 14-7 record. Their record, however, doesn't tell the whole story. The majority of the Rablet's seven defeats were one or two basket heartbreakers.

In the Little Eight Conference the Palermen won 6 while losing 4. They ended up in a second place tie with the West Rockford Braves. The Rablets hit their peak at the end of the campaign in the Belvidere sophomore tournament. The sophs went all the way to the finals before bowing out to DeKalb 75-73.

The Rablets started the season by downing Beloit 46-42. They then fell into a slump and lost their next three games. Moline beat them 50-38, Janesville won 60-58, and East Aurora won 54-50. Then the Rablets found themselves and dumped Sterling 64-46 and Freeport 68-58.

They lost their next outing to Elgin 61-54, but came back to defeat Belvidere 63-52. LaSalle Peru fell to the Rablets 55-47, but the next Friday night the Rablets fell to West Rockford 60-55.

After the West Rockford loss the Palermen won five straight. In their string they downed Joliet 62-51, Barrington 65-50, Freeport 78-50, West Aurora 69-67, and Belvidere 53-52.

LaSalle-Peru broke the victory streak by skinning the Rablets 64-63. In the last contest of the season the Rablets downed West Rockford 56-50.

Sophomore letters were received by Thomas Burns, Bruce Cacciapaglia, L. J. Clark, Bruce Elmquist, Robert Lindmen, Robert Pyzynski, Bruce Swenson, Dallas Thompson, and co-captains Ronald Carlson and James Jeras.

Receiving manager awards were John Goodin and Dale Lundquist.

Rab Mermen Take Big 8 Swim Crown; Place Third in State Meet

The East high swimmers, guided by Coach Vito Lopin, splashed their way to a third place finish in the State meet and an undisputed first place finish in the Big Eight Conference meet. Along the way to their first 152 season record, the tank men set 60 new records and tied six others.

Four Rab seniors combined to win two events in the much hailed State meet at New Trier. John Mattoon came through in the big event and took top honors in the 50-yard freestyle race.

The 200 yard freestyle relay team composed of Mattoon, Gerald Logan, Mike Noling and powerful anchor man Mike Sheetz captured the honors in the division for the second year in a row.

The leading team triumph of the year for the Lobmen was the Big Eight Conference meet. Out of nine events, East won seven and placed second in two.

Off to a flying start are John Mattoon, Mike Sheetz, Gerry Logan, and Mike Noling

East started their season by playing host to and beating Highland Park 54-32. In the second meet of the season, the tankmen traveled to Elgin and got slapped with a 40-37 defeat. They came back, though, and won their next four meets in a row before bowing by one point to Evanston.

In their string of four victories the Rabs defeated Waukesha 56-21, Janesville 46-31, Freeport 60-17, and West Rockford 60-17. From this point on the Rabs reigned victorious over all. Except, of course, for New Trier and Evanston in the state meet.

Queen Sondra Spongberg and her attendants, Jan Kruse and Joan Heid reigned over the 16th annual Dolphin show, "Round the World."

The show is a combination of the finest aquatic talent from both the Dolphin club and the girl's swimming organization, the Dorado club.

Throughout the school year the Dolphin club held a number of events for its members. Among these were the popular splash parties and the annual initiation picnic held late in the spring. At all of these activities the members of the girl's Dorado club were guests of the Dolphins.

This year's Dolphin club officers were Mike Sheetz, president; Jerry Logan, vice-president; Mike Noling, secretary; John Mattoon, treasurer; and Ronnie Johnson, sergeant-at-arms.

Palmer Racketmen Finish Season's Schedule in Fine Style

With eight lettermen out of the top ten back from last year's championship squad, Coach Harry Palmer was again trying for the conference and district titles. Hoping to capture the Big Eight tennis crown for another year, the racketmen underwent a rugged schedule. Eight seniors and eleven juniors, including last year's top six players, and seven sophomores started the season, all making bids for top positions. Last year's Big Eight doubles winner Mike Copp and Louis Tangorra headed this year's team, but they were pushed hard the whole season by Pat Copp and Roger Martin, runners-up in the Big Eight doubles. The racketeers successfully lived up to their outstanding reputation

Rab Golfers Finish Season in State Championship Meet

With the state championship as their primary goal, Coach James Laude and the East high golfers aimed to live up to the fine record obtained by former teams. Four returning lettermen plus three other team members from last season were expected to fill in the top positions.

Marty Klondike, a junior, won a major letter last year. Minor lettermen include Bill Cleveland, Frank Maggio, and Kurt Johnson. Senior John Kjellstrom and juniors Tom Warren and Alan Miller also returned.

The district meet took place at Sandy Hollow on May 12, with the top team and the top two individuals gaining the right to compete in the state meet. The state meet was again held this year on the University of Illinois course in Champaign on May 18 and 19.

One week later the Big Eight meet was played at LaSalle-Peru.

Coach Laude was very pleased with the prospects and the golfers played to be undefeated in dual meets and in the larger meets.

Rabsox Face More Competition; New Teams Join Conference

With eight lettermen returning, Coach Bill Aleks and Assistant Coach Bob Orr confidently mapped the plans that would bring home East's first championship in the three years of Rock Valley Conference competition.

With their main strength centering around the four lettermen hurlers, seniors Bill Wilhelmi and Dale McClure, and juniors Bob Peter and Joe Lasky, the fortunes of the Rabsox lay destined in their ability to acquire a good catcher.

Making up the strong batteries for this season were Tom Sweeney and Chuck Carlin, while taking the mound were Bob Peter, Joe Lasky, Bill Wilhelmi, and Dale McClure.

Seniors Joe Choppi and Gary Lindsay supplied the demand for hard-hitting outfielders for the second year in a row, as did junior Merle Hedberg and senior Ron Boese at shortstop and second base.

Three new teams opened the season to give Rabsox competition in the conference. Charter members opening the season were Freeport, St. Thomas, and West Rockford, with Belvidere dropping out.

Coach Bill Aleks uses the season's schedule with Coach Bob Orr and managers Bill Cordrey and Bill Brugen.

E-Rab Thinclads Complete 1956 Track Season in Fine Style

The 1956 E-Rab thinclads went into the season with a bright outlook as six returning lettermen plus an array of veterans formed a promising squad.

Joel Peterson secured points in the weight events and ran on the relay teams. Tom Lewis competed in the discus and high jump. Ronnie Englund handled the broad jump and Jerry McGowan, Don Leaf and Ronnie Hollembeak did the pole vaulting.

The Rabs were strong in the distance races with milers Dick Townsend and Brian White, half milers Bill Bishoff and Fred Bryant, and 440-yard men Gary Porter and Fred Clow.

Conrad Lantz, John Ahlquist and Bob Irwin ran the hurdles, while Ronnie N. Johnson and Dan McConnell did the sprinting.

Sophomore Cindermen Demonstrate Future Potential

Coach Vito Lopin's 1956 sophomore track squad finished the cinder campaign by showing a great deal of potential to use in the future

The Lopinmen were exceptionally strong in the sprints with Ronnie Carlson, Bruce Cacciapaglia, Bill Bland, Cliff Neff and Bob Luna competing in the individual events and relays. The distance events were handled by Ted Lund, Tom Burns and Lee

Harvey. In the hurdles it was Ron Carlson, Ron Sliktas and Bill Bland

In the field events, the weight division headed by Gunnar Wallschlaeger, Tom Trost, Gary Garr and Doug Henderson, the Rablets garnered their share of points. Handling the jumping duties were Ron Carlson, Ron Sliktas and Barry Erlandson while Lawrence D. Johnson did the pole vaulting

Cross-Country Squad Takes Third in Big 8 to End Season

The 1955 cross country squad finished a fine season running area golf courses to place third in the Big Eight Conference and fourth place in the Sterling Invitational meets.

Dick Townsend and Brian White were the main stays this year as they led their team to a creditable record. Seniors Fred Clow, Soren Holmberg and junior Llewellyn Walker rounded out the top five.

Among the others who did a good job and kept the first squad busy included Fred Bryant, Gary Myers, Delos Lewis, Lee Harvey, Joe Lasky, Ronnie Hulett and Dick Johnson.

Briefly summing up the fall campaign, Coach John Reschlein said that the team as a whole was average, but the team's two top competitors, Townsend and White were as good as anyone in the state.

Discussing plans for the next meet are runners Dick Townsend, Fred Clow and Coach John Reschlein.

Keen competition, good sportsmanship and teamwork, and a rousing game between teams can well summarize one of the most active organizations at East high, the Girls Athletic Association. In addition to supplying a systematic athletic program which offers speedball, volleyball, basketball and softball, G.A.A. remains an excellent source of fun and friendship throughout the year to its members. Entering a float in the Homecoming parade, participating on Parents Night, helping R.O.T.C. boys to become better dancers and sending representatives to conventions and playdays at other schools were a portion of the activities G.A.A.'ers took part in this year. Student assistants gained valuable experience while officiating games between teams. "Futurama," the 1956 G.A.A. Carnival, revealed the ambitions and efforts of weeks of planning on the part of G.A.A.'ers. The theme revolved around the idea of space and future while mobiles, space ships, and space hats were seen throughout the cafe on February 17, 1956. One's skill and luck could be tested at the booths of chance, or the future could become known at the fortune teller's corner. A gaily decorated section where food was served, a cake-walk, and a booth where silhouettes were drawn were also main attractions.

The highlight of the evening was the entertainment with Jan Kruse and Cleo Andersen, co-chairmen. There were acts ranging from prehistoric times to a deep dark African jungle dance and a Universal Beauty Contest with Sally Olander as Portia Pluto, reigning as Queen.
